

Hearth & Home Tour

Saturday, June 15th, 10 am to 4 pm

Enjoy the best of Plymouth's past and present as you explore a fascinating range of private homes during our eighth annual Antiquarian Hearth & Home Tour. You'll be welcomed into a number of charming historic houses as well as a selection of unique contemporary homes that you won't want to miss! Your ticket includes a scrumptious afternoon tea served in the handsome, newly restored Colonial Revival garden at the Hedge House.

Space is limited, so purchase your tickets early! Advance discount available. You may purchase tickets by mail (please use enclosed form) or on-line through PayPal; visit our website at www.plymouthantiquariansociety.org. Advance ticket orders must be received by Saturday, June 8th for discount to apply. Tickets may also be purchased on the day of the event at the Hedge House Museum. Tickets are non-refundable.

You must pick up your ticket, in the form of a program booklet with locations and information on each house, at the Hedge House Museum, 126 Water Street, Plymouth, on Friday, June 14th, 2 to 6 pm, or on the morning of the event, Saturday, June 15th, between 9 and 11 am. Houses are available for viewing at 10 am on Saturday. Afternoon tea will be served from 2 to 4 pm.

Tickets are $35 per person; $30 for Antiquarian Society members and by advance purchase.

All proceeds benefit the Plymouth Antiquarian Society, a 94-year-old organization with membership open to all that share a passion for history. We are the leading preservation organization in the town of Plymouth, with multiple historic sites including the 1809 Hedge House, the 1749 Spooner House, and the 1677 Harlow House. Since 1920, we've welcomed the public to explore the local past through tours, exhibits, and programs.
